Because big dreams need a little help

You've probably dreamt about your wedding your whole life.
And, now that it's becoming reality, chances are you could use a little help with your big day. At Once Wedding Studio, that's where we come in. We specialize in helping couples create a wedding that is totally them, and totally memorable.

It takes on average 250 hours to plan a wedding, and some brides and grooms just don't have that much free time! With a full coordination package, you would be allowed the freedom to have a personalized wedding that is the exact style you're looking for...without the hassle of interviewing vendor after vendor, sourcing favours, or worrying if your flowers are setting the right tone.

Get to know your wedding planner
The right planner can be your best friend during this process. A best friend that just happens to love weddings enough for the both of you!
